Defendant in Murder Case Collapses,
Groaning in Apparent Agony
When Jury Selection Begins

DOCTOR IN ATTENDANCE

Administers Medicine But States
That he is Unable to Find Any
Signs of Illness

HANDCUFFED TO OFFICER

Process of Obtaining Jury is Slow.
With no Prospect of Obtaining
One Today

There was little prospect of securing a jury today in the circuit court, when Cecil Cloud went on trial on the charge of first degree murder, being accused in a grand jury indictment with having fatally shot Luther C. Sharp, city councilman, in an attempted hold up at his meat shop in the night of December 8.

The process of securing a jury was tiresome and slow today, as many questions were propounded to each prospective juror. The extra panel of 50 talesmen were on hand, and had not been touched when court convened this afternoon, as only the members of the regular panel had been examined at that time.

The defendant appeared in court at nine o'clock this morning in charge of court officials, and he was handcuffed to Frank Havens, a special court bailiff.

Shortly after the jury box was filled, the defendant collapsed, groaning in agony and complaining of severe pains in his abdomen. He was removed to another room and the progress of the trial was delayed for an hour or more.

Dr. E. I. Wooden, county health physician, was summoned and attended the defendant. Cloud at no time was released from being handcuffed to the special court bailiff, and officers were close at hand. He was complaining of acute indigestion.

The county physician gave him medicine, but stated that as far as he could determine, the man was not ill, and that he did not show signs of being ill. The physician stated that there was an absence of the usual symptoms that accompanied such an illness.

The defendant was ordered back into the court room, where he continued to groan and moan during the morning session while attorneys were attempting to secure a jury. This afternoon all morning symptoms had disappeared.

The progress of obtaining a jury would have gone on without the defendant, except the law in criminal cases provides that the person charged with crime must be present in court for all procedures where he is involved.

The defendant is 29 years old and he was accompanied in the court room by his father, Atwell Cloud who lives at 2602 East Broad street, Newcastle.

Each prospective juror was questioned at length. The state is represented by Prosecutor Gates Keichum, assisted by John H. Kiplinger, employed by the city administration. The defendant is represented by Albert C. Stevens of this city, assisted by John F. Joyce, also of this city.

Most of the questions asked the prospective jurors were directed by Mr. Stevens, representing the defense. The state did not go into detail in the questioning, and left the bulk of the interrogatives on the defendant.

The state will not ask for capital punishment, as evidenced in their questions, as the talesmen were not asked the question as to whether they were prejudiced against sentencing a person to death.

Some jurors were discharged when they had opinions that could not be changed, and others were dismissed without challenge.

The prospective jurors were asked questions by the defense, along similar lines:

"Have you discussed the case with anyone, or have you discussed it with persons who are witnesses, or who might have direct information?"

MARTINSVILLE HOST

To Entertain Teams They Defeat
at Banquet Friday

Martinsville, Ind., March 17—Martinsville will honor their championship basketball team with a grand banquet and formal celebration in the new gymnasium next Friday night.

To the banquet will be invited the four teams Martinsville downed in the state finals, Liberty Center, Connersville, Bedford and Frankfort. The teams they played in the sectionals at Martinsville and in the regional at Bloomington will also be invited, as well as the Franklin and Shelbyville teams.

Following the banquet for the teams, the entire public will jam in the gym for the celebration. School was dismissed for the day for a celebration of the victory.

LITTLE PROGRESS IN GETTING JURY

Prospective Jurymen For Trial of Governor Warren T. McCray Are Examined Carefully

SOME OF QUESTIONS ASKED

Governor Apparently Oblivious of
State of Hundreds as He Goes
To Court Room

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17—Efforts to obtain a jury for the trial of Governor McCray charged with grand larceny and embezzlement, progressed slowly in the opening session of the trial today.

Michael A. Ryan, attorney for the defense, went into minute details as to the knowledge of each prospective jurymen concerning the case. He asked each man particularly what newspaper stories he had read of the bankruptcy hearing against the governor and of the efforts to have him ousted from office.

He also asked each man about his banking connections.

McCray sat among his attorneys as the questioning progressed. There was hardly a change of expression on his face. When he entered the court room just before the case was called he was apparently oblivious of the state of hundreds of persons who filled the corridors to the court room.

Spectators were not admitted to the court room during the first hour of the hearing. Later the doors were opened and the room filled immediately. Many persons stood up.

Governor Warren T. McCray, the first governor of Indiana ever to stand trial on criminal charges, is charged in the indictment with embezzlement and larceny of $155,000 of the funds of the state board of agriculture.

The indictment was selected out of fifteen pending against McCray as the one the state would press against him. Other indictments charge him with forgery, obtaining credit under false pretenses and other offenses.

A special venire of 100 talesmen was ready when the difficult task of selecting a jury started. Another venire of 100 men is ready to report Wednesday.

Indications were that the trial would be long and tedious, with the attorneys for the governor fighting bitterly every step of the way to prevent the state from proving the indictment against him.

The board of agriculture funds amounting to $155,000 which form the basis of the trial were turned over to McCray in several installments last summer by I. Newt Brown then secretary treasurer of the state board of agriculture.

McCray claimed the money was loaned to him. Brown, in testimony at a bankruptcy hearing against the governor, said the money was intended for deposit in the Discount and Deposit bank at Kentland, of which McCray was then president.

AIRMEN TAKE OFF ON EPICAL FLIGHT

Three U. S. Army Airplanes Speed
Into Air at 9:32 A. M. Today
For Trip Around World

MAJOR MARTIN IN COMMAND

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Lowell
Smith in Charge of Other Ships—
Sacramento First Stop

Clover Field, Santa Monica, Calif., March 17—Leaving the field in a perfect "take off," the three U. S. army airplanes, commencing a flight around the world, sped into the air here at 9:32 a. m.

Heading his flyers, Major Frederick L. Martin, in ship No. 1, was the first to take off. The big air cruiser sped down the field for one hundred yards and on a slight rise in the west end of the field "took the air," with assurance and steadiness.

Close behind him was ship No. 3 with Lieut. Leigh Wade at the "stick." Last to leave was Lieut. Lowell Smith in ship No. 2.

Each of the Junior Officers handled his plane with all the certainty of their commander.

Flying in the shaped formation with Major Martin's cruiser in the van, the trio of army air services' finest planes, circled the field twice, turning to the south and back again over their starting point. Then gaining a five hundred feet elevation, the air cavalcade was away, headed toward Sacramento, the first stopping place in their epical voyage.

Tonight the airmen will sleep in Sacramento, where they will land this afternoon. On Tuesday they fly to Vancouver. Barracks, Washington, and on Wednesday complete the first main leg of their flight by landing in Seattle.

Haste has no part in the flight plans and the airmen may not take off from Seattle before April 1, Major Martin said.

Time will be given for the fourth plane, which is to be piloted by Lieut. Erick Nelson, to have its final tests and catch up with the air caravan at Seattle.

The planes leaving Cloverfield this morning will be almost completely changed before they again appear here. At Seattle they will acquire pontoons, making them amphibious. When they reach Calcutta, the landing gear again will be changed.

Near Constantinople the world planes will be provided with new engines which will again be replaced at London.

ADMIT GUILT ON A SHOP-LIFTING CHARGE

Mrs. Ella Smith and Mrs. Catherine
French Held in Indianapolis, Accused of Grand Larceny

LOOT VALUED AT NEAR $100

Two Rushville women are held in jail in Indianapolis on charges of grand larceny, according to an Indianapolis dispatch in which the women have admitted, it is said, the charge of shop-lifting, late Saturday.

The women gave their names as Mrs. Ella Smith, age 43, and Mrs. Catherine French, age 56. The Rushville directory lists them as living here, with Mrs. Smith residing at 821 North Arthur street and Mrs. French as living at 434 East Seventh street.

According to the Indianapolis dispatch, the loot was valued at near $100, and was taken from several stores. The arrest was made by a policeman, and when they were taken to headquarters, the two local women made a confession, according to the Indianapolis report.

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF THE COUNTY DIES

Alva Junkin, Age 57. Expires Sunday
at Madison, Death Being Due to
Cerebral Hemorrhage

FUNERAL TUESDAY, 2:00 P. M.

Alva Junkin, age 57 years, retired farmer who moved to Rushville a few years ago from his farm northwest of here, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the hospital in Madison, death resulting unexpectedly from cerebral hemorrhage.

The body was returned to his late home in this city at 223 East Sixth street, where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of the Rev. Gibson Wilson, and with burial in East Hill cemetery, at Arlington.

The deceased was born September 22, 1866, and had lived all his life in this county, most of which was spent on the farm near Henderson. He had been in failing health for several months, and was removed to the hospital at Madison only recently.

He is survived by the widow and three children, who are Virgil A. Junkin and Mrs. Russell Carfield of northwest of Rushville and Miss Mary Ruth Junkin, who lived at home. The deceased also is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sabert Offutt of Arlington and Mrs. David Webster, residing northwest of Rushville.

MORE LINKS IN CHAIN SOUGHT

Committee Seeks Further Evidence to Connect J. W. Smith up With Showing of Fight Films

FIGHT PROMOTER IS CALLED

Others Interested in Dempsey-Carpentier Pictures to be Questioned
in Daugherty Probe

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 17—More links in the chain of evidence designed to connect Jesse W. Smith with the illegal showing of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight films was sought today by the senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty.

C. O. Holbridge of Baltimore, former department of justice agent will be called to substantiate the testimony of Gaston B. Means who charged that Smith sold "protection" for the films. Holbridge made an investigation of the film deal and Senator Wheeler, Montana, expects his testimony to prove conclusive.

Subpoenas have been issued for Tex Richard, fight promoter, half owner of the fight films; Jap Muma, New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and William Orr New York, both interested in the pictures.

Fred C. Quinby, producer of the pictures, testified that Muma told him that he was a friend of Daugherty and Smith and to go ahead and show the pictures.

Wheeler said the committee had been unable to locate "Ike Martin of Cincinnati," named by Quinby as an associate of Muma and Orr, and believes he was a "dummy." If Martin could be found, Wheeler said, he would be summoned.

The committee has not yet decided to summon Jack Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, who shared in the profits of the films. Quinby said the syndicate made $125,000 on the deal.

If the committee can complete its probe of the films deals today, Wheeler said it would dig deeper into the charges of Gaston B. Means, former department of justice investigator, concerning $100,000 handed him for Jesse Smith for "protection" in the Standard Aircraft case. Officers of the army air service will be the first witnesses called in this line of inquiry.

SPARKS SET FIRE TO ROOF

Slight Damage Done to Residence at
907 North Main Street

Sparks from a chimney set fire to roof of the double house, located at 907 North Main street, and occupied by the families of Paul Newhouse and Dale Fisher, Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. A small hole was burned through the roof on the south side of the dwelling occupied by Mr. Newhouse.

The fire department was called over the telephone, and an alarm also was turned in from box 45, Ninth and Morgan street, summoning all three companies. The blaze was extinguished with chemicals, and the loss estimated at $15, as a ceiling in one room was damaged from the liquid chemicals.

PROBE ON FOR FIVE MONTHS

Charges That Attempt Was Made to Bargain for Secretaryship of Interior to be Investigated

By PAUL R. MALLON
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 17—With court proceedings begun, one member of the cabinet ousted and another under fire, the Teapot Dome committee today approached the end of its sensational investigation.

This is what the five months probe of the leasing of naval reserve lands by former Secretary of the Interior Fall has accomplished.

1—Institution of court action to cancel the leases and premise of criminal proceedings against at least three of the principals. Government counsel have begun court action at Cheyenne on Teapot Dome and are in Los Angeles today to bring suits in the Doheny leases.

2—Resignation of Secretary of the Navy Denby who signed the leases, and investigation of the official acts of Attorney General Daugherty now under way by a separate senate committee.

3—Testimony showing that A. B. Fall who leased the reserves, got big loans from E. L. Doheny and later from Harry F. Sinclair.

In digging out the facts, the committee has torn away the secrecy

POLYANNA SEATS TO BE READY MAR. 22

Reservations May Be Made at Pitman and Wilson's Drug Store
Next Saturday

TICKETS RESERVED FIRST

Tickets for "Polyanna," the glad play, may be reserved Saturday morning, March 22, at 9 a. m., at the Pitman and Wilson drug store. There will be no tickets reserved for cash, until all tickets that have been sold are disposed of. No person will be allowed but six seats, to save confusion and give the people a chance for good seats.

Rehearsals for the play are rounding into shape and it is expected to be very entertaining. "Polyanna" is a glad play and one which, as a result of the seeing, is bound to give a person a better appreciation of people and the world. It reflects the humor, tenderness and humanity that gave the story such wonderful popularity among young and old in all walks of life.

The play is being given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, at the Graham Annex auditorium, March 25 and 26. Some of the best talent in the city will participate in the production, Mrs. John Swain taking the leading part of "Polyanna."

The matinee for children will be given Tuesday afternoon, March 25, promptly at 2:45 o'clock, to which all the school children, together with their teachers, are invited.

23 ACCESSIONS TO THE CHURCH

Thirteen at St. Paul's Church Decision Day Services and Ten on Sunday Morning

"THE SUPREME DECISION"

"The Meaning of Church Membership" is Sermon Theme of the Rev.
Gibson Wilson

There were twenty-three accessions to St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, thirteen at the Decision Day services and ten at the morning hour Sunday, when the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Hargett, spoke on "The Supreme Decision," taking his text from Matthew 27:22, "What Shall I do with Jesus?"

Revival services will continue at this church on Thursday and Sunday nights.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson spoke at the First Presbyterian church on "The Meaning of Church Membership" taking his text from Acts 1:14 "These all with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer."

St. Paul's Church

The Rev. Mr. Hargett spoke in part as follows Sunday:

"The Supreme Decision," was the subject of the morning sermon at the St. Paul's Methodist church, the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Hargett, taking his text from Matthew 27:22, "What Shall I Do With Jesus?" He spoke in part as follows:

"Pilate was making the supreme decision of his life and knew it not. That is one of Life's greatest tragedies that often we know not the hour of crisis till it is too late. Pilate thought that he was passing judgment upon Jesus and knew not that Jesus was passing judgment upon him. He asked 'what shall I do with Jesus?' and knew not he was deciding what Jesus would do with him."

"The local color of that historic scene has faded but every man faces the same ringing question, 'What shall I do with Jesus?' It is the soul's supreme question because it settles character and influence for time and destiny for all eternity. No man can reject Christ without deterioration of character. No man can accept Him without ennobling his own life and helping others to lives of purity and love."

"Pilate thought to settle the question by sending Jesus away. Being a Galilean, he came under the jurisdiction of Herod and to Herod he must go but he came back to Pilate. Again and again in history, men have followed the example of Pilate and have endeavored to send him away, but he has always come back with renewed power, compelling them to crown Him or crucify Him."

"Pilate tried compromise, 'scourge Him and let go.' Where no great moral issues are at stake, compromise may make for peace and progress, but where moral issues are involved, compromise is always a failure. The Missouri Compromise was a failure in the days of slavery. Compromise with the liquor traffic or any other evil is a failure for you cannot make legally right that which is morally wrong."

"As a last resort, Pilate tried the wash basin method. He washed his hands of the whole matter and became indifferent to it all. That also is always a failure. Christ is the truth and men cannot be indifferent to truth. They must accept or reject. Christ is a living, working, persistent force for righteousness. It is easier for a man to be indifferent to the sunlight or to the force of gravitation, than to be indifferent to Christ. Wash your hands of Him if you will. Plunge into pleasure, live in a riot of the senses and some day you will hear His quiet voice 'He that drinketh of this water shall thirst again, but he that drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst.'"

"Let the business man wash his hands of Him and devote himself to building a big business and great wealth, some day the quiet voice will say, 'A Man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesses.' Let the public official accept bribes, falsely entries in records and grow rich on graft and one day he will hear the voice, 'there is nothing hid that shall not be revealed, there is nothing covered that shall not be made known.' You cannot es-

Obituary

The sun had just sunk below the horizon, the evening shadows were falling fast, the loved ones gathered around the sick bed, who for several hours had been silently watching and waiting, saw that the messenger of death was rapidly approaching and at six-fifteen the death angel entered and closed the scene. Their loved one had gone.

Helena Robey, daughter of Jerry and Gussie Gardner Robey was born in Washington Township, Rush County, Ind. July 1st, 1910 and departed this life, Feb. 5th, 1924 at the early age of 13 years, 7 months, 4 days. Just two years ago Feb. 9th her mother passed to the great beyond. She was also preceded by two infant brothers who were older.

Besides her relatives and many friends she leaves a loving father, step-mother and one sister, Anna Elizabeth, aged 10 years to mourn her loss.

During her weeks of illness she patiently bore her suffering never complaining, only saying when asked what she wanted "Nothing, only to get well."

Helena was of a happy disposition, always cheerful and full of life, and when playing her merry laugh could be heard above the rest.

She was of regular attendance at Sunday school, always coming with lessons well prepared. She was also a member of the Triangle Club.

Death had entered this home not as a grim reaper to pluck in cruelty, this budding life, just ready to bloom into beautiful womanhood, but as an angel to bind it into his sheaves to transplant it into fields of life.

Dearest Helena, thou hast left us: Here thy loss we deeply feel: But tis God who hath bereft us; He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee

Where no farewell tear is shed.

OIL INQUIRY IS NEARING THE END

from irregularities and indications of intrigue. It was brought out that Daugherty and Senator Davis Elkins participated in Sinclair Oil stock speculation in Sinclair Oil stock sons through alleged claims to Teapot Dome obtained $2,000,000 from Sinclair so they would not take the matter to court; that Edward B. McLean and half a dozen of his confidential agents pulled political wires to keep him from the witness stand.

Only one big story remains to be investigated and all the evidence concerning it will be obtained within the week. Half a dozen witnesses have been subpoenaed for Wednesday to tell what they know of the charges made by Leonard Wood Jr., that an attempt was made to bargain for votes with the secretaryship of the interior as the prize at the last national Republican convention.

When this is cleaned up, together with several minor matters, the investigators will be ready to write their report to the senate.

Most of their recommendations have already been accepted. The committee is in recess until tomorrow when the stock speculations of Daugherty and Elkins will be taken up.

TO THE CHURCH

ape Him. You must decide for yourself what you will do with Jesus. Will you crucify Him or crown Him?"

At First Presbyterian

The Rev. Mr. Wilson spoke in part as follows Sunday morning:

"There are many wrong ideas of church membership. There are those who think they have performed their obligations when they have gone through its ceremonies of becoming a member. After this it isn't even necessary to go back to the church services."

"There are those who think you should join the church when you have reached a certain degree of goodness. Only those are eligible to membership who realize that they are not good and are willing to follow the way that is in Christ. Those who proclaim their own goodness do not come into the church."

"Some would appear to think that their duty ends with attendance upon the church services and has no relation to carry out the great program of the church."

"Let us notice this early church. It was quite ideal in many respects. 'All were present. It is the duty of the people of the church to be present at the hour of worship. It isn't enough merely to attend the Sabbath school then go home."

"One mind and purpose possessed all. They were of one accord. There was no schism. There was no divided interest, no discordant purpose. Read Psalm 133. 'Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.' If you are out of harmony with this great group of worshippers, then your first duty is to pray for yourself, before you pray for others."

"They continued steadfastly. There must be perseverance in the Christian life. You must give constant attention to your devotional life. If you are up in the mountain one day then down in the valley the next day, you won't make a good worker."

"Here is a great lesson in Reverence. Only a glance at the worshiping church is necessary to see how far its influence has reached. Are you ailing here? Are you failing to train your children here? Do you watch their life to see that their conduct is different on the Sabbath day from that of other days? You must see that they are trained here just as you see that they are trained in education and citizenship."

"Church membership implies that you are to take your part in the program and tasks of the church. We find that the early church brought on the first day of the week as the Lord had prospered them."

"The local expense of the church must be cared for. The plan of God is that you should take your place here according to your ability. You have no right to use up your funds so that there is none left. The Lord's work must have its full share."

CLOUD FEIGNS ILLNESS BUT TRIAL GOES ON

"Have you any opinion now?"
"Do you understand that the law in this state provides that if you are selected as a juror in this case, that you will enter under the trial of such case, with the presumption in mind that the defendant is innocent, until he has been proven guilty?"

"Do you belong to the Horse Thief Detective association?"

"Do you belong to any other organization or society that might have been instrumental in the investigation and prosecution of this case?"

In addition to those questions, there were others touching upon the question of doubt, which were explained by the attorneys, and frequently the court was called upon to explain the meaning of the various terms of doubt as referred to by the attorneys.

Family history of each juror also was gone into by the defense in an effort to find out whether any prospective juror had a son that was ever charged with murder, whether any member of his family was ever murdered or died mysteriously.

Government Is Fortunate

The good fortune of the United States in having its finances in the hands of a man who understands the principles governing large transactions rather than in the hands of the radical who is strong in theory but ignorant of practical financing, is illustrated by recent criticism made by a radical senator concerning the rates of interest on government bonds. This senator asserted that the government is paying too high a rate of interest on government securities.

The particular criticism of the senator was directed against what are known as the Treasury Saving Certificates, which have been issued by Secretary Mellon not so much for the purpose of getting funds into the treasury as for the purpose of encouraging the American people in habits of thrift. These certificates are sold under terms which make them non-transferable. This condition is imposed in order to discourage people from investing in the certificates and later selling them in order to get money to put into oil stocks, mining stocks, or some other kind of unsafe investment.

Secretary Mellon made a careful computation in order to ascertain a rate of interest that would be fairly remunerative. This computation led to the conclusion that a 25 Cent certificate should be sold for $20 and a $100 Certificate for $80. On a $20 investment the buyer of the Certificate would receive $5 in interest at the end of 5 years. This would be 4 1/2 per cent compounded. But the investor could not get his interest twice a year as he does in the case of ordinary government bonds. Under the terms of these Treasury Saving Certificates if the Treasury

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
Wednesday, March 17, 1909
Edward Wilson of North Main street is highly elated over the success of his son, Estel Wilson, in meeting in Paris, France, where he is studying art. The following dispatch is from Paris to Wabash, where young Wilson has lived several years: "Estel Wilson, who formerly lived in this city, is now studying art in Paris. Mr. Wilson sailed last August and since then has met with most flattering success. One of his recent pictures, a portrait of a Paris gentleman, was sold for $2,000.

The great prevalence of grip, bad colds, tonsillitis and sore throats, is keeping the physicians busy.

Dr. Guy Tittsworth of Sedalia, Mo., who has been abroad taking a post-graduate medical course at Vienna Austria, will arrive tomorrow to spend several days with his cousin, John A. Tittsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Miller of Detroit Mich., are here, the guests of Mrs. Hendricks in West Third street. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are enroute to Indianapolis, where they will make their future home.

TRAFFIC OFFICER TELLS INTIMATE DETAILS

Officer Hinkle Says It's Easy to Smile When One's Health is Good— Gives Tanlac Credit For Recovery.

Few cities can boast of a more wide-awake and efficient traffic officer than Clarence D. Hinkle, 4345 Fleming St., Philadelphia, Pa., who has been a member of the Philadelphia Police Department for ten years and who handles the traffic at Fourth and Market streets, one of the city's busiest corners.

"It is no easy thing," said Officer Hinkle, recently, "to serve the public with a smile when you are suffering the pangs of indigestion as I have done during the past year. Not only that, my appetite was lagging, I had frequent spells of nervousness and couldn't sleep right, and it kept me on my P's and Q's to look after my duties around the traffic zone.

"But since I have taken Tanlac, my stomach and nerves are strong and normal and I eat, sleep and feel so good that my work is a genuine pleasure."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills. —Advertisement—wishes to get his money before the expiration of the 5 years he gets only 3 1/2 per cent interest.

That this rate of interest is not excessive is proved by the fact that although the treasury department has extensively advertised these certificates they have not been very extensively purchased. They are purchased by people who wish to put their money in a safe investment for a period of five years. Those who wish to change their investments within that period are not buying that class of securities.

Balloon Tire Confusion

These illustrations show very clearly the difference between standard size and balloon tires. The smaller is the air chamber of a 33x5 standard size tire inflated with 60 pounds of air.

The larger is the air chamber of a 34x7 balloon tire for the same car, 91 per cent larger than the standard tire shown above, and intended to be used at 30 pounds of air.

MARTINSVILLE IS
NEW STATE CHAMP

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Congratulations are in order to Martinsville, and to Glen Curtis, the coach. The team, little thought of as the title winners, came through and landed on top in the final game, setting Frankfort back 36 to 30. Coach Curtis formerly was coach in Rushville, and has many friends here. It was the second time that he has piloted a state champ, as in 1918 he coached Lebanon to the title.

The entire season was 1 upset after another, and what happened to the best teams in the state tourney was nothing more than expected. This year there were many good teams, and indications among all high school for next season point to an excellent prospect.

On the other hand, Connersville deserves credit. In their game played with Martinsville Saturday morning they came within two minutes of winning. The final score was three points difference, after Connersville had led the state champs all of the way.

"St. Patrick's day will see 15 teams green with envy," says Hoosier Courtship of Richmond.

Bedford fans were good losers Saturday when Martinsville took their measure. Bedford would rather lose to Martinsville any day than have Anderson do it.

On the press row at the state tourney, the scribes and fans had much fun at the expense of Shootin' 'em of the News Saturday afternoon. He lost much sleep over the defeat of Anderson. Soon after, he arrived on the scene Saturday afternoon, a Bedford fan pinned a large red-lettered Bedford badge on his coat tail. The crowd cheered when Shootin' 'em was called upon the stage by an official, and turned around a couple of times, all unconscious to the fact that he was advertising Bedford.

"From the Press Box," edited by Best in the Kokomo Tribune, occupied the press section next to Hittin' 'em. Fine fellow, and a great kiddier. Also a good loser, as Kokomo got jilted about like Rushville did. Best says his column will continue for the time being, and will include track and field chatter.

Best also says to watch Kokomo this year in the track and field tournament. He expects his team to win the state.

That fellow Best from Kokomo knew everyone that came down the line. He was busy shaking hands with people, including coaches, good looking girls, ice cream peddlers and news boys. In fact he was so busy that Bedford fans sitting behind him said he was surely on the reception committee.

S. J. Doss of the Columbus Ledger had a pew near Hittin' 'em, and he was busy pounding out the dope on his stunted typewriter, and eating a red apple between halves.

Prof. J. H. Scholl called today, complimented Hittin' 'em on the success of the column this year. He said he was a good guesser on the state tourney—he missed the first four winners.

Hittin' 'em closes shop today, and in doing so extends thanks to all readers who have been so kind to take time reading the stuff this year. Next November we will be back in line again. In the meantime keep thinking about the new gymnasium, a booster's club and a real team for Rushville. Go out and rake in the best players—encourage them to play the game—get behind the coach at the start of the season, and let's put Rushville over as the winner next year.

The schedule for next season has been announced, and is as follows:

MOVIES

"The Bad Man," at Princess
Those who view "The Bad Man," a First National attraction which is showing at the Princess theatre today and Tuesday should not make the mistake of confusing satire with realism.

"The Bad Man," an Edwin Carver-First National production, was written by Porter Emerson Browne, and there is no secret of the fact that he took his theme from the border operations of the late Pancho Villa. Villa's operations furnished him with the first thoughts of what has grown into one of the most successful of stage plays and motion picture productions.

In "The Bad Man," which role is portrayed by Holbrook Blinn, creator of the original role in the stage production, he is called upon to do certain things that are not countenanced in polite society, or in fact, any American society. His views, too, clash with those certain laws of convention to which Americans adhere.

However, his role is purely a satirical one. Almost every line overflows with satire. If Blinn's role was a literal one, the play would not have been the phenomenal success that it was. But because it is satire, it is delightfully humorous, and those who view it in that light will not regret the moments they spent viewing it.

By DICK MILLER
(Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17—Indiana, the center of the basketball universe, today proclaims the Martinsville, Ind. High School team the best net machine in the State. Sweeping Liberty Center, Connersville, Bedford and Frankfort teams aside, the Artesian City boys left no doubt as to their supremacy as a basketball team. Thousands of fans who saw the sixteen games at the Coliseum in the two day tournament and those who could not get inside probably will say the Martinsville team does not have the five best basketball players in the State. Agreeing with the last statement, it is the object of the writer to accomplish the almost impossible task of selecting twenty three men from the 119 boys who exhibited their wares and separate them into teams and a list of honorable mention positions.

Five men teams were selected because, in our estimation, they constitute a team, and it would be almost impossible to distinguish substitutes and regulars. Almost strict adherence to choosing the men from the positions they played was also followed: Self, of Bedford, it will be noted, jumped center, momentarily before moving to the forward position. For Richmond, Johannung jumped center, but played the back guard position. Both were regarded as forward and backguard respectively.

Robinson, of Connersville, was probably the most finished center that has played in a high school tournament in years. Wherever his team needed him, he played to perfection, a truly great defensive and offensive man as well as a leader. Cummins is selected over Brown by the narrowest of margins, because of his great showing in the Richmond game. Brown likewise played great ball in every game but loses only by the flip of a coin.

Self, of Bedford, and Wright, of Martinsville, have the finesse of two great forwards. Those who saw their work both under the hoop and out on the floor will agree they have a margin over the others although it is slight. Wright averaged four field goals each game while Self was the offensive strength of the Stony City crew.

W. Schnaiter, of Martinsville, gets the call over Kessler of Richmond, the Gimbel prize winner, for floor guard position because he can shoot baskets. Kessler is the better floor worker, but can't hit the hoop. Good of Frankfort, a steady, heady player, was the main cog in the Frankfort machine, but has a very slight margin over Ridge of Connersville. Good can get possession of the ball.

Pogue, of Frankfort, is almost a unanimous choice for back guard. Like Skinner of Bedford he had to stand back under the hoop and watch the eagle eye sharp shooters of Martinsville hit from the center of the floor and further out. Under the hoop Martinsville could do little with either of them.

R. Schnaiter, a hard fighter and a good long shot, is placed on the third

Giants Sure Winners

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 17—New York ball players are not among those qualified to know who are counting the Giants out of the National league and preparing the Yankees for an upset in the American League.

While it would be unnatural, and painful, too, if McGraw heard about it, for the Giant players to even whisper that some other club might win the pennant, the members of the three-time champions are obviously sincere in maintaining that they are in for no more than a hard fight.

Victory is synonymous with a hard fight with most any team that McGraw hands together, because he makes them fight or gives them the air.

Weak pitching is regarded as the greatest handicap the Giants will have to assume in the 1924 pennant race. Most everyone but the Giant players figure that the club has a terrible pitching staff.

"With Bently, Neff, Ryan, McQuil-lan, Watson and Oeschger, we have the foundation for anything but a weak staff, and if we don't get a couple of good youngsters out of twenty that are to be tried out, the average won't work," Hank Gowdy, the veteran catcher, said recently.

Frank Frisch, the star second basemen, maintained all winter that the Giants were not facing trouble. Frisch argues that no other team in the league has been greatly strengthened, the Giants have not been weakened and if the Giants were good enough to win the last three years, they are good for another pennant.

Heinie Groh, who spent the winter in Cincinnati, says that the Reds have a fine pitching staff, but they have a weak infield that will offset the defensive strength of the pitching. He claims the concern Pat Moran feels about his infield was manifested when he offered the Giants $50,000 for Bill Terry, young first baseman, and when great efforts were made to get Dessen, a young third baseman, from the St. Paul American Association club.

The Giant players feel that they will have a stronger team on the offense and defense with Bill Southworth in the outfield and they all seem to be confident that as long as Travis Jackson is around they will not be crippled by the loss of Dave Bancroft, who is to manage the Boston Braves next season.

Babe Ruth, speaking for the Yankees, says they're in now, and that the excitement in the American League will be centered in the battle for second place.

Ruth figures that even if a couple of the veteran pitchers slip, the Yanks will still be able to bat their way to a championship. In reply to arguments that the Yanks were out-batted and outscored last season, he comes back with: "Why did we win the pennant then?"

There is little concern being felt in New York about the Yankees, who are regarded as being in a good safe position, but the Giants are considered to be in a very perilous position.

WORKING HARD FOR GAME

Fairview Steaming Up To Meet Milroy Here Wednesday Night

The Fairview Athletic club is working hard this week for their game with the Milroy team here Wednesday night at the Modern Appliance building. The Fairview team has made a change in their line-up and will have Essex, Peters, Cook, Scales, Royalty, Darnell, Kendall and Morley Craig. The latter has joined the club after having played on the Raleigh high school team for several years.

The Fairview team had a practice game last week with the Rushville Romeos, in which the final result was 46 to 12. Peters for Fairview, scored 10 field goals and Rushville lined up with Dagler, Culp, Root, Herkless and Downey.

JACKIE COOGAN'S MOTHER IN ADVICE ABOUT BABY WONDERS

By HAROLD E. SWISHER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Hollywood, March 17—The number of film struck maidens and aspiring Valentinos who flock into Hollywood from all points of the compass is exceeded only by the startling influx of ambitious mothers with embryo Jackie Coogans or Baby Peggys.

Recently the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce and the Will Hays organization joined in an educational campaign in an attempt to discourage film struck persons, most of whom having no dramatic ability, and to establish once and for all the fact that Hollywood is not a necropolis for mediocrity.

More recently there have appeared in Hollywood, and their numbers are legion, ambitious mothers, with no business experience, small bank rolls and cute children, seeking to entice the elusive goddess of the silver sheet. They come from Gopher Prairie, seeking fame and fortune for their offsprings, chiefly on the advice of doting neighbors, who were just "willing to bet" that if they were in Hollywood their children would make a big hit in the movies.

Mrs. Jack Coogan, mother of the screen's most famous youngster, offers some words of wisdom to mothers of precocious boys and girls. "In our case," Jackie's mother told the United Press, "we had no idea when we came to Los Angeles that our son would develop as he has. Jackie has been around stage folk all his life. Mr. Coogan and I have both been identified with theatricals since childhood, and when Jackie was very young he exhibited a talent for pantomime. We did not come to Hollywood five years ago with the intention of putting Jackie in pictures. Opportunity presented itself, as it has with others, and Jackie made good.

"Patience and perseverance, fortified with a stout heart and a full pocketbook and some profession to fall back upon in case of need, are a mother's passport to Hollywood.

"If your child shows a tendency towards pantomime, make a screen test. There are cameramen in practically every community. This first step may save you from disillusionment, or may be the means of opening the doors of opportunity for your child. A boy or girl may have unusual dramatic qualifications, but no manner of histrionic ability will register on the camera eye unless one has that undefinable screen personality.

"Don't depend upon friendship for some one in a studio to place your child in pictures—pull and influence does not register on the screen.

"Don't let your next door neighbor persuade you with persistent assurances that if your little ones were in Hollywood, he or she would be an instantaneous hit.

"Don't attempt to make your child act—it can't be done. Unless a child is allowed to develop under his own initiative, the case is hopeless.

"The highways of California are lined with roses and palm trees, but the paths that lead to screen achievements are narrow and uninviting. One in a thousand makes good—may be your child is that one. If you are prepared to hear all that comes before success, then Hollywood invites you. Otherwise it would be better to remain by your fire-side."

The next few weeks will see a return of the directors to Goldwyn fold. Marshall Neilson who was loaned to Mary Pickford as director of "Dorothy Vernon," will come back to make more Goldwyn pictures, and King Vidor is almost through his work in "Laurette Taylor's Happiness," which he has been directing for Metro.

Pat O'Malley will spend a month in Ireland next summer. Accompan-

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 57
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

If the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels are not carrying on their work as they should, there is an accumulation within the body of poison and toxic material from day to day.

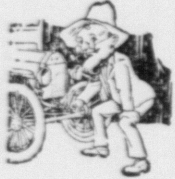

If you did not clean your house of all the dirt every day and allowed it to accumulate, then the only thing left for you to do would be to start a general house cleaning to make up for that which should have been done daily.

Nature does the same thing. When the poisons have accumulated to a degree that life is endangered, nature brings on an adaptive fever to burn up the poison. This is her way of housecleaning.

There are many different kinds of toxins which might accumulate in the body just as there are different kinds of dirt which will be found in a house. The burning of these different toxins give rise to different symptoms. In other words, the burning of one kind of toxin will give rise to the symptoms of so called Small Pox, another toxin so called Flu, another so-called measles, etc.

Health turns the Clock Backward

One thing you have always known is that if your elimination is good and you are free from Poisons your resistance against any of the so-called contagious diseases is good.

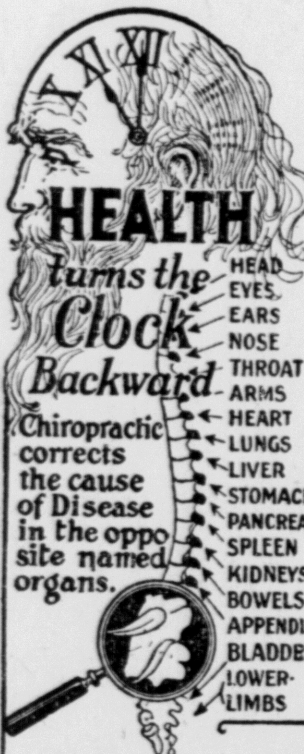

If you ache, feel tired, drowsy, have a bad color, etc., you can feel sure that your elimination is bad so don't wait until nature has to bring on a fever to clean house for you and cause you to pass through the symptoms of so-called Small Pox, Flu, or any other fever condition.

The methods we use in this office bring back the normal action to the organs of elimination and as the poisons are eliminated your resistance against disease becomes greater.

Many Rushville Folks Are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and what with the burning and scalding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Rushville people. Profit by this Rushville resident's experience. Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 840 W. Ninth St., says: "My kidneys acted too frequently and I suffered with terrible pains. The doctor said it was gravel. He didn't help me any and I kept passing stones. I got Doan's Pills at Wolcott's Drug Store, and a short use banished the pain."

MORE THAN FIVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Borem said: "I use Doan's occasionally and they always relieve the trouble."

THE GREATEST LABOR SAVER EVER INVENTED FOR WOMEN. NO HOME COMPLETE WITHOUT IT

While it only weighs 25 pounds and only uses 4 gallons of water—think of the saving in carrying and heating water by using The Happy Home. It can be used on any cook stove or hot plate; it will wash more clothes at one time than any single tub washer made for family use, washing from 12 to 17 sheets at one cylinder full. It does away with the WASHEBOARD and BOILER and washes anything from the finest lace curtains, feather pillows, blankets, quilts, comforts to the dirtiest rag rugs and overalls.

A Trial in Your Own Home

will convince you that this little washer is even more than we claim for it.

You do not have to stand and turn the crank but as you pass by—doing your other work, turn it slowly for two or three minutes, then go about your work, occasionally during the 20 minutes of steaming, turn as before mentioned. When the clothes have steamed for 20 minutes, lift them out of washer into a tub of rinsing water as you do not have to bring them until after rinsing.

You Do Not Change The Water

from the time you commence until you have finished your entire washing—merely add enough to each cylinder of clothes to equal 4 gallons, the amount required.

There are several in use in Rushville and vicinity and they are more than pleased with the Happy Home Washer, and say that it will do everything that is claimed for it.

CLOUD FEIGNS ILLNESS BUT TRIAL GOES ON

Defendant in Murder Case Collapses,
Groaning in Apparent Agony
When Jury Selection Begins

DOCTOR IN ATTENDANCE

Administers Medicine But States
That he is Unable to Find Any
Signs of Illness

HANDCUFFED TO OFFICER

Process of Obtaining Jury is Slow.
With no Prospect of Obtaining
One Today

There was little prospect of securing a jury today in the circuit court, when Cecil Cloud went on trial on the charge of first degree murder, being accused in a grand jury indictment with having fatally shot Luther C. Sharp, city councilman, in an attempted hold up at his meat shop in the night of December 8.

The process of securing a jury was tiresome and slow today, as many questions were propounded to each prospective juror. The extra panel of 50 talesmen were on hand, and had not been touched when court convened this afternoon, as only the members of the regular panel had been examined at that time.

The defendant appeared in court at nine o'clock this morning in charge of court officials, and he was handcuffed to Frank Havens, a special court bailiff.

Shortly after the jury box was filled, the defendant collapsed, groaning in agony and complaining of severe pains in his abdomen. He was removed to another room and the progress of the trial was delayed for an hour or more.

Dr. E. L. Wooden, county health physician, was summoned and attended the defendant. Cloud at no time was released from being handcuffed to the special court bailiff, and officers were close at hand. He was complaining of acute indigestion.

The county physician gave him medicine, but stated that as far as he could determine, the man was not ill, and that he did not show signs of being ill. The physician stated that there was an absence of the usual symptoms that accompanied such an illness.

The defendant was ordered back into the court room, where he continued to groan and moan during the morning session while attorneys were attempting to secure a jury. This afternoon all morning symptoms had disappeared.

The progress of obtaining a jury would have gone on without the defendant, except the law in criminal cases provides that the person charged with crime must be present in court for all proceedings where he is involved.

The defendant is 29 years old and he was accompanied in the court room by his father, Alvin Cloud who lives at 2602 East Broad street, Newcastle.

Each prospective juror was questioned at length. The state is represented by Prosecutor Gates Keichum, assisted by John H. Kiplinger, employed by the city administration. The defendant is represented by Albert C. Stevens of this city, assisted by John F. Joyce, also of this city.

Most of the questions asked the prospective jurors were directed by Mr. Stevens, representing the defense. The state did not go into detail in the questioning, and left the bulk of the interrogatories on the defendant.

The state will not ask for capital punishment, as evidenced in their questions, as the talesmen were not asked the question as to whether they were prejudiced against sentencing a person to death.

Some jurors were discharged when they had opinions that could not be changed, and others were dismissed without challenge.

The prospective jurors were asked questions by the defense, along similar lines:

"Have you discussed the case with anyone, or have you discussed it with persons who are witnesses, or who might have direct information?"

MARTINSVILLE HOST To Entertain Teams They Defeat at Banquet Friday

Martinsville, Ind., March 17—Martinsville will honor their championship basketball team with a grand banquet and formal celebration in the new gymnasium next Friday night.

To the banquet will be invited the four teams Martinsville downed in the state finals, Liberty Center, Connersville, Bedford and Frankfort. The teams they played in the sectionals at Martinsville and in the regional at Bloomington will also be invited, as well as the Franklin and Shelbyville teams.

Following the banquet for the teams, the entire public will jam in the gym for the celebration. School was dismissed for the day for a celebration of the victory.

LITTLE PROGRESS IN GETTING JURY

Prospective Jurymen For Trial of Governor Warren T. McCray Are
Examined Carefully

SOME OF QUESTIONS ASKED

Governor Apparently Oblivious of
State of Hundreds as He Goes
To Court Room

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17—Efforts to obtain a jury for the trial of Governor McCray charged with grand larceny and embezzlement, progressed slowly in the opening session of the trial today.

Michael A. Ryan, attorney for the defense, went into minute details as to the knowledge of each prospective jurymen concerning the case. He asked each man particularly what newspaper stories he had read of the bankruptcy hearing against the governor and of the efforts to have him ousted from office.

He also asked each man about his banking connections.

McCray sat among his attorneys as the questioning progressed. There was hardly a change of expression on his face. When he entered the court room just before the case was called he was apparently oblivious of the state of hundreds of persons who filled the corridors to the court room.

Spectators were not admitted to the court room during the first hour of the hearing. Later the doors were opened and the room filled immediately. Many persons stood up.

Governor Warren T. McCray, the first governor of Indiana ever to stand trial on criminal charges, is charged in the indictment with embezzlement and larceny of $155,000 of the funds of the state board of agriculture.

The indictment was selected out of fifteen pending against McCray as the one the state would press against him. Other indictments charge him with forgery, obtaining credit under false pretenses and other offenses.

A special venire of 100 talesmen was ready when the difficult task of selecting a jury started. Another venire of 100 men is ready to report Wednesday.

Indications were that the trial would be long and tedious, with the attorneys for the governor fighting bitterly every step of the way to prevent the state from proving the indictment against him.

The board of agriculture funds amounting to $155,000 which form the basis of the trial were turned over to McCray in several installments last summer by I. Newt Brown then secretary treasurer of the state board of agriculture.

McCray claimed the money was loaned to him. Brown, in testimony at a bankruptcy hearing against the governor, said the money was intended for deposit in the Discount and Deposit bank at Kentland, of which McCray was then president.

AIRMEN TAKE OFF ON EPICAL FLIGHT

Three U. S. Army Airplanes Speed
Into Air at 9:32 A. M. Today
For Trip Around World

MAJOR MARTIN IN COMMAND

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Lowell
Smith in Charge of Other Ships—
Sacramento First Stop

Clover Field, Santa Monica, Calif., March 17—Leaving the field in a perfect "take off," the three U. S. army airplanes, commencing a flight around the world, sped into the air here at 9:32 a. m.

Heading his flyers, Major Frederick L. Martin, in ship No. 1, was the first to take off. The big air cruiser sped down the field for one hundred yards and on a slight rise in the west end of the field "took the air," with assurance and steadiness.

Close behind him was ship No. 3 with Lieut. Leigh Wade at the "stick." Last to leave was Lieut. Lowell Smith in ship No. 2.

Each of the Junior Officers handled his plane with all the certainty of their commander.

Flying in the shaped formation with Major Martin's cruiser in the van, the trio of army air services' finest planes, circled the field twice, turning to the south and back again over their starting point. Then gaining a five hundred feet elevation, the air cavalcade was away, headed toward Sacramento, the first stopping place in their epical voyage.

Tonight the airmen will sleep in Sacramento, where they will land this afternoon. On Tuesday they fly to Vancouver barracks, Washington, and on Wednesday complete the first main leg of their flight by landing in Seattle.

Haste has no part in the flight plans and the airmen may not take off from Seattle before April 1, Major Martin said.

Time will be given for the fourth plane, which is to be piloted by Lieut. Erick Nelson, to have its final tests and catch up with the air caravan at Seattle.

The planes leaving Cloverfield this morning will be almost completely changed before they again appear here. At Seattle they will acquire pontoons, making them amphibious. When they reach Calcutta, the landing gear again will be changed.

Near Constantinople the world planes will be provided with new engines which will again be replaced at London.

ADMIT GUILT ON A SHOP-LIFTING CHARGE

Mrs. Ella Smith and Mrs. Catherine
French Held in Indianapolis, Accused of Grand Larceny

LOOT VALUED AT NEAR $100

Two Rushville women are held in jail in Indianapolis on charges of grand larceny, according to an Indianapolis dispatch in which the women have admitted, it is said, the charge of shop-lifting, late Saturday.

The women gave their names as Mrs. Ella Smith, age 43, and Mrs. Catherine French, age 56. The Rushville directory lists them as living here, with Mrs. Smith residing at 821 North Arthur street and Mrs. French as living at 434 East Seventh street.

According to the Indianapolis dispatch, the loot was valued at near $100, and was taken from several stores. The arrest was made by a policewoman, and when they were taken to headquarters, the two local women made a confession, according to the Indianapolis report.

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF THE COUNTY DIES

Alva Junkin, Age 57, Expires Sunday
at Madison, Death Being Due to
Cerebral Hemorrhage

FUNERAL TUESDAY, 2:00 P. M.

Alva Junkin, age 57 years, retired farmer who moved to Rushville a few years ago from his farm northwest of here, died Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the hospital in Madison, death resulting unexpectedly from cerebral hemorrhage.

The body was returned to his late home in this city at 223 East Sixth street, where funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, in charge of the Rev. Gibson Wilson, and with burial in East Hill cemetery, at Arlington.

The deceased was born September 22, 1866, and had lived all his life in this county, most of which was spent on the farm near Henderson. He had been in failing health for several months, and was removed to the hospital at Madison only recently.

He is survived by the widow and three children, who are Virgil A. Junkin and Mrs. Russell Carfield of northwest of Rushville and Miss Mary Ruth Junkin, who lived at home. The deceased also is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Sabert Offutt of Arlington and Mrs. David Webster, residing northwest of Rushville.

Committee Seeks Further Evidence

Showing of Fight Films

FIGHT PROMOTER IS CALLED

Others Interested in Dempsey-Carpentier Pictures to be Questioned
in Daugherty Probe

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, March 17—More links in the chain of evidence designed to connect Jesse W. Smith with the illegal showing of the Dempsey-Carpentier fight films was sought today by the senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty.

C. O. Holbridge of Baltimore, former department of justice agent who be called to substantiate the testimony of Gaston B. Means who charged that Smith sold "protection" for the films. Holbridge made an investigation of the film deal and Senator Wheeler, Montana, expects his testimony to prove conclusive.

Subpoenas have been issued for Tex Richard, fight promoter, half owner of the fight films; Jap Muma, New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and William Orr, New York, both interested in the pictures.

Fred C. Quinby, producer of the pictures, testified that Mami told him that he was a friend of Daugherty and Smith and to go ahead and show the pictures.

Wheeler said the committee had been unable to locate "Ike Martin of Cincinnati," named by Quinby as an associate of Muma and Orr, and believes he was a "dummy." If Martin could be found, Wheeler said, he would be summoned.

The committee has not yet decided to summon Jack Dempsey and his manager, Jack Kearns, who shared in the profits of the films. Quinby said the syndicate made $125,000 on the deal.

If the committee can complete its probe of the films deals today, Wheeler said it would dig deeper into the charges of Gaston B. Means, former department of justice investigator, concerning $100,000 handed him for Jesse Smith for "protection" in the Standard Aircraft case. Officers of the army air service will be the first witnesses called in this line of inquiry.

Slight Damage Done to Residence at
907 North Main Street

Sparks from a chimney set fire to roof of the double house, located at 907 North Main street, and occupied by the families of Paul Newhouse and Dale Fisher, Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. A small hole was burned through the roof on the south side of the dwelling occupied by Mr. Newhouse.

The fire department was called over the telephone, and an alarm also was turned in from box 45, Ninth and Morgan street, summoning all three companies. The blaze was extinguished with chemicals, and the loss estimated at $15, as a ceiling in one room was damaged from the liquid chemicals.

Washington, March 17—With court proceedings begun, one member of the cabinet ousted and another under fire, the Teapot Dome committee today approached the end of its sensational investigation.

This is what the five months probe of the leasing of naval reserve lands by former Secretary of the Interior Fall has accomplished.

1—Institution of court action to cancel the leases and premise of criminal proceedings against at least three of the principals. Government counsel have begun court action at Cheyenne on Teapot Dome and are in Los Angeles today to bring suits in the Doheny leases.

2—Resignation of Secretary of the Navy Denby who signed the leases, and investigation of the official acts of Attorney General Daugherty now under way by a separate senate committee.

3—Testimony showing that A. R. Fall who leased the reserves, got big loans from E. L. Doheny and later from Harry F. Sinclair.

Next Saturday

TICKETS RESERVED FIRST

Tickets for "Polyanna," the glad play, may be reserved Saturday morning, March 22, at 9 a. m., at the Pitman and Wilson drug store. There will be no tickets reserved for cash, until all tickets that have been sold are disposed of. No person will be allowed but six seats, to save confusion and give the people a chance for good seats.

Rehearsals for the play are rounding into shape and it is expected to be very entertaining. "Polyanna" is a glad play and one which, as a result of the seeing, is bound to give a person a better appreciation of people and the world. It reflects the humor, tenderness and humanity that gave the story such wonderful popularity among young and old in all walks of life.

The play is being given under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, at the Graham Annex auditorium, March 25 and 26. Some of the best talent in the city will participate in the production, Mrs. John Swain taking the leading part of "Polyanna."

The matinee for children will be given Tuesday afternoon, March 25, promptly at 2:45 o'clock, to which all the school children, together with their teachers, are invited.

23 ACCESSIONS TO THE CHURCH

cision Day Services and Ten on Sunday Morning

"THE SUPREME DECISION"

"The Meaning of Church Membership" is Sermon Theme of the Rev.
Gibson Wilson

There were twenty-three accessions to St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, thirteen at the Decision Day services and ten at the morning hour Sunday, when the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Hargett, spoke on "The Supreme Decision," taking his text from Matthew 27:22, "What Shall I do with Jesus?"

Revival services will continue at this church on Thursday and Sunday nights.

The Rev. Gibson Wilson spoke at the First Presbyterian church on "The Meaning of Church Membership" taking his text from Acts 1:14 "These all with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer."

St. Paul's Church

The Rev. Mr. Hargett spoke in part, as follows Sunday:

"The Supreme Decision," was the subject of the morning sermon at the St. Paul's Methodist church, the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Hargett, taking his text from Matthew 27:22, "What Shall I Do with Jesus." He spoke in part as follows:

"Pilate was making the supreme decision of his life and knew it not. That is one of Life's greatest tragedies that often we know not the hour of crisis till it is too late. Pilate thought that he was passing judgment upon Jesus and knew not that Jesus was passing judgment upon him. He asked 'what shall I do with Jesus?' and knew not he was deciding what Jesus would do with him."

"The local color of that historic scene has faded but every man faces the same ringing question, 'What shall I do with Jesus?' It is the soul's supreme question because it settles character and influence for time and destiny for all eternity. No man can reject Christ without deterioration of character. No man can accept Him without ennobling his own life and helping others to lives of purity and love."

"Pilate thought to settle the question by sending Jesus away. Being a Galilean, he came under the jurisdiction of Herod and to Herod he must go but he came back to Pilate. Again and again in history, men have followed the example of Pilate and have endeavored to send him away, but he has always come back with renewed power, compelling them to crown Him or crucify Him."

"Pilate tried compromise, 'scourge Him and let go.' Where no great moral issues are at stake, compromise may make for peace and progress, but where moral issues are involved, compromise is always a failure. The Missouri Compromise was a failure in the days of slavery. Compromise with the liquor traffic or any other evil is a failure for you cannot make legally right that which is morally wrong."

"As a last resort, Pilate tried the wash basin method. He washed his hands of the whole matter and became indifferent to it all. That also is always a failure. Christ is the truth and men cannot be indifferent to truth. They must accept or reject. Christ is a living, working, persistent force for righteousness. It is easier for a man to be indifferent to the sunlight or to the force of gravitation, than to be indifferent to Christ. Wash your hands of Him if you will. Plunge into pleasure, live in a riot of the senses and some day you will hear His quiet voice 'He that drinketh of this water shall thirst again, but he that drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst.'"

"Let the business man wash his hands of Him and devote himself to building a big business and great wealth, some day the quiet voice will say, 'A Man's life consisteth not in the abundance of things which he possesses.' Let the public official accept bribes, falsify entries in records and grow rich on graft and one day he will hear the voice, 'there is nothing hid that shall not be revealed, there is nothing covered that shall not be made known.' You cannot es-

Obituary

The sun had just sunk below the horizon, the evening shadows were falling fast, the loved ones gathered around the sick bed, who for several hours had been silently watching and waiting, saw that the messenger of death was rapidly approaching and at six-fifteen the death angel entered and closed the scene. Their loved one had gone.

Helena Robey, daughter of Jerry and Gussie Gardner Robey was born in Washington Township, Rush County, Ind. July 1st, 1910 and departed this life, Feb. 5th, 1924 at the early age of 13 years, 7 months, 4 days. Just two years ago Feb. 9th her mother passed to the great beyond. She was also preceded by two infant brothers who were older.

Besides her relatives and many friends she leaves a loving father, step-mother and one sister, Anna Elizabeth, aged 10 years to mourn her loss.

During her weeks of illness she patiently bore her suffering never complaining, only saying when asked what she wanted "Nothing, only to get well."

Helena was of a happy disposition, always cheerful and full of life, and when playing her merry laugh could be heard above the rest.

She was of regular attendance at Sunday school, always coming with lessons well prepared. She was also a member of the Triangle Club.

Death had entered this home not as a grim reaper to pluck in cruelty this budding life, just ready to bloom into beautiful womanhood, but as an angel to bind it into His sheaves to transplant it into fields of life.

Dearest Helena, thou hast left us: Here thy loss we deeply feel: But tis God who hath bereft us; He can all our sorrows heal Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled, Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee

Where no farewell tear is shed.

from irregularities and indications of intrigue. It was brought out that Daugherty and Senator Davis Elkins participated in Sinclair Oil stock transactions through alleged claims to Teapot Dome obtained $2,000,000 from Sinclair so they would not take the matter to court; that Edward B. McLean and half a dozen of his confidential agents pulled political wires to keep him from the witness stand.

Only one big story remains to be investigated and all the evidence concerning it will be obtained within the week. Half a dozen witnesses have been subpoenaed for Wednesday to tell what they know of the charges made by Leonard Wood Jr., that an attempt was made to bargain for votes with the secretaryship of the interior as the prize at the last national Republican convention.

When this is cleaned up, together with several minor matters, the investigators will be ready to write their report to the senate.

Most of their recommendations have already been accepted.

The committee is in recess until tomorrow when the stock speculations of Daugherty and Elkins will be taken up.

TO THE CHURCH

capellin. You must decide for yourself what you will do with Jesus. Will you crucify Him or crown Him?"

At First Presbyterian

The Rev. Mr. Wilson spoke in part as follows Sunday morning:

"There are many wrong ideas of church membership. There are those who think they have performed their obligations when they have gone through its ceremonies of becoming a member. After this it isn't even necessary to go back to the church services."

"There are those who think you should join the church when you have reached a certain degree of goodness. Only those are eligible to membership who realize that they are not good and are willing to follow the way that is in Christ. Those who proclaim their own goodness do not come into the church."

"Some would appear to think that their duty ends with attendance upon the church services and has no relation to carry out the great program of the church."

"Let us notice this early church. It was quite ideal in many respects."

"All were present. It is the duty of the people of the church to be present at the hour of worship. It isn't enough merely to attend the Sabbath school then go home."

"One mind and purpose possessed all. They were of one accord. There was no schism. There was no divided interest, no discordant purpose. Read Psalm 133. 'Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.' If you are out of harmony with this great group of worshippers, then your first duty is to pray for yourself, before you pray for others."

"They continued steadfastly. There must be perseverance in the Christian life. You must give constant attention to your devotional life. If you are up in the mountain one day then down in the valley the next day, you won't make a good worker."

"Here is a great lesson in Reverence. Only a glance at the worshiping church is necessary to see how far its influence has reached. Are you ailing here? Are you failing to train your children here? Do you watch their life to see that their conduct is different on the Sabbath day from that of other days? You must see that they are trained here just as you see that they are trained in education and citizenship."

"Church membership implies that you are to take your part in the program and tasks of the church. We find that the early church brought on the first day of the week as the Lord had prospered them."

"The local expense of the church must be cared for. The plan of God is that you should take your place here according to your ability. You have no right to use up your funds so that there is none left. The Lord's work must have its full share."

CLOUD FEIGNS ILLNESS BUT TRIAL GOES ON

"Have you any opinion now?"

"Do you understand that the law in this state provides that if you are selected as a juror in this cause, that you will enter under the trial of such case, with the presumption in mind that the defendant is innocent, until he has been proven guilty?"

"Do you belong to the Horse Thief Detective association?"

"Do you belong to any other organization or society that might have been instrumental in the investigation and prosecution of this case?"

In addition to those questions, there were others touching upon the question of doubt, which were explained by the attorneys, and frequently the court was called upon to explain the meaning of the various terms of doubt as referred to by the attorneys.

Family history of each juror also was gone into by the defense in an effort to find out whether any prospective juror had a son that was ever charged with murder, whether any member of his family was ever murdered or died mysteriously.

BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love

love one to another.—John 13:

States in having its finances in the hands of a man who understands the principles governing large transactions rather than in the hands of the radical who is strong in theory but ignorant of practical financing, is illustrated by recent criticism made by a radical senator concerning the rates of interest on government bonds. This senator asserted that the government is paying too high a rate of interest on government securities.The particular criticism of the senator was directed against what are known as the Treasury Saving Certificates, which have been issued by Secretary Mellon not so much for the purpose of getting funds into the treasury as for the purpose of encouraging the American people in habits of thrift. These Certificates are sold under terms which make them non-transferable. This condition is imposed in order to discourage people from investing in the certificate and later selling them in order to get money to put into oil stocks, mining stocks, or some other kind of unsafe investment.Secretary Mellon made a careful computation in order to ascertain a rate of interest that would be fairly remunerative. This computation led to the conclusion that a $25 Certificate should be sold for $20 and a $100 Certificate for $80. On a $20 investment the buyer of the Certificate would receive $5 in interest at the end of 5 years. This would be 4 1/2 per cent compounded, but the investor could not get his interest twice a year as he does in the case of ordinary government bonds. Un-

NEA Service Staff Writer.WASHINGTON, March 17.—The great golden piano in the East Room of the White House never poured forth more golden tones than it did the other day when Mrs. Coolidge was hostess at the first of a series of Lenten musicales she is giving for official and social Washington.The artist of the afternoon was none other than Sergei Rachmaninoff, Russian pianist who has won the musical world by the heels just now. Members of the cabinet, the supreme court and the diplomats sat with their wives and others to the number of 400, tried to forget for the moment the strident discords that have been shredding the atmosphere of the capital since the Senate investigators got going good. So beautiful, indeed, was the music that some of them were almost able to believe again that the world does contain beauty and truth and care-free happiness.Which, in the present state of affairs, is the highest praise that could be accorded an artist.Additional cause for congratula-tion, was the fact that the recital, with tea and cakes thrown in, was absolutely without cost. The host polio who heard Rachmaninoff's concert elsewhere each had to dig up from $1.40 up.FAMILY dignity is nowhere held more dear than in staid old Massachusetts, "the home of the bean and the cod," where the Puritan ancestors of Calvin Coolidge and Burton K. Wheeler first made their abode.So it was altogether in keeping with tradition and propriety that the relatives of Senator Wheeler, following his recent attacks on the administration of his former fellow statesman, should hold a family conference to decide what was to be done about it.Young Wheeler, it appeared, since leaving Massachusetts and getting himself elected senator from Montana, had absorbed a lotof "wild" ideas. He was airing these in the Senate, Dreadful Awful!So a letter was drafted, beseech-ing, imploring, begging Senator Wheeler to watch his step. He mustn't do anything rash. He mustn't say anything "radical."
He mustn't bring shame on the family name, the good old name of Wheeler, so well and favorably known for generations in, and about the old Bay State.Wheeler read the letter. Then he grinned and buzzed for his stenographer."Dear family," he dictated, or something like that. "We only pretend to give a paraphrase of what he wrote.""I was elected to the United States Senate to represent the people of Montana, not my family in Massachusetts, and I depended on my family to elect me to the Senate. I never would have got there if I didn't worry about me. I'll worry along somehow."MARY ROBERTS RINEHART, a novelist and playwright, has an uncanny knack of picking the subjects and the plots for best sellers and record-breaking plays.Rumor says, not without apparent foundation, that Mary thinks the day is here for a great political novel dealing with inside events in Washington.Whether it has any significance in this connection I do not say, but Mrs. Rinehart has been an interested listener at more than one session of the Teapot Dome investigation. The testimony there has held enough color and drama to grip even a confirmed fictionist.Also, Mrs. Rinehart has added no little to the enjoyment of the run-of-mine spectators at the hearings.
Her entry is always the signal for

MARTINSVILLE IS

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

Congratulations are in order to Martinsville, and to Glen Curtis, the coach. The team, little thought of as the title winners, came through and landed on top in the final game, setting Frankfort back 36 to 30. Coach Curtis formerly was coach in Rushville, and has many friends here. It was the second time that he has piloted a state champ, as in 1918 he coached Lebanon to the title.

The entire season was upset after another, and what happened to the best teams in the state tourney was nothing more than expected. This year there were many good teams, and indications among all high school for next season point to an excellent prospect.

On the other hand, Connersville deserves credit. In their game played with Martinsville Saturday morning they came within two minutes of winning. The final score was three points difference, after Connersville had led the state champs all of the way.

"St. Patrick's day will see 15 teams green with envy," says Hooser, Courtship of Richmond.

Bedford fans were good losers Saturday when Martinsville took their measure. Bedford would rather lose to Martinsville any day than have Anderson do it.

On the press row at the state tourney, the scribes and fans had much fun at the expense of Shootin' 'em of the News Saturday afternoon. He lost much sleep over the defeat of Anderson. Soon after, he arrived on the scene Saturday afternoon, a Bedford fan pinned a large red lettered Bedford badge on his coat tail. The crowd cheered when Shootin' 'em was called upon the stage by an official, and turned around a couple of times, all unconscious to the fact that he was advertising Bedford.

"From the Press Box", edited by Best in the Kokomo Tribune, occupied the press section next to Hittin' 'em. Fine fellow, and a great kiddier. Also a good loser, as Kokomo got jilted about like Rushville did. Best says his column will continue for the time being, and will include track and field chatter.

Best also says to watch Kokomo this year in the track and field tournament. He expects his team to win the state.

That fellow Best from Kokomo know everyone that came down the line. He was busy shaking hands with people, including coaches, good looking girls, ice cream peddlers and news boys. In fact he was so busy that Bedford fans sitting behind him said he was surely on the reception committee.

S. J. Boss of the Columbus Ledger had a few near Hittin' 'em, and he was busy pounding out the dope on his stunted typewriter, and eating a red apple between halves.

Prof. J. H. Schell called today, complimented Hittin' 'em on the success of the column this year. He said he was a good guesser on the state tourney—he missed the first four winners.

Hittin' 'em closes shop today, and

For Creaky Joints

Just rub on the new application called Joint-Ease if you want to know what real joint comfort is. It's for stiff, swollen, or pain-tortured joints whether caused by rheumatism or not. A few seconds' rubbing and it soaks right in through skin and flesh right down to ligament and bone. It oils up and limbers up the joints, subdues the inflammation and reduces the swelling. Joint-Ease is the one great remedy for all joint troubles and all druggists and other live druggists are dispensing it daily—a tube for 60 cents. At all druggists. —Advertisement in doing so, extends thanks to all readers who have been so kind to take time reading the staff this year. Next November we will be back in line again. In the meantime keep thinking about the new gymnasium, a hooster's club and a real team for Rushville. Go out and rake in the best players—encourage them to play the game—get behind the coach at the start of the season, and let's put Rushville over as the winner next year.

The schedule for next season has been announced, and is as follows:

MOVIES

"The Bad Man," at Princess
Those who view "The Bad Man," a First National attraction which is showing at the Princess theatre today and Tuesday should not make the mistake of confusing satire with realism.
"The Bad Man," an Edwin Carrawe-First National production, was written by Porter Emerson Browne, and there is no secret of the fact that he took his theme from the border operations of the late Pancho Villa. Villa's operations furnished him with the first thoughts of what has grown into one of the most successful of stage plays and motion picture productions.

In "The Bad Man", which role is portrayed by Holbrook Blinn, creator of the original role in the stage production, he is called upon to do certain things that are not countenanced in polite society, or in fact, any American society. His views, too, clash with those certain laws of convention to which Americans adhere. However, his role is purely a satirical one. Almost every line overflows with satire. If Blinn's role was a literal one, the play would not have been the phenomenal success that it was. But because it is satire, it is delightfully humorous, and those who view it in that light will not regret the moments they spent viewing it.

By DICK MILLER
(Written for United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., March 17—Indiana, the center of the basketball universe, today proclaims the Martinsville, Ind., High School team the best net machine in the State. Sweeping Liberty Center, Connersville, Bedford and Frankfort teams aside, the Artesian City boys left no doubt as to their supremacy as a basketball team. Thousands of fans who saw the sixteen games at the Coliseum in the two day tournament and those who could not get inside probably will say the Martinsville team does not have the five best basketball players in the State. Agreeing with the last statement, it is the object of the writer to accomplish the almost impossible task of selecting twenty-three men from the 119 boys who exhibited their wares and separate them into teams and a list of honorable mention positions.

Five men teams were selected because, in our estimation, they constitute a team, and it would be almost impossible to distinguish substitutes and regulars. Almost strict adherence to choosing the men from the positions they played was also followed: Self, of Bedford, it will be noted, jumped center, momentarily before moving to the forward position. For Richmond, Johanning jumped center, but played the back guard position. Both were regarded as forward and backguard respectively.

Robinson, of Connersville, was probably the most finished center that has played in high school tournament in years. Wherever his team needed him, he played to perfection, a truly great defensive and offensive man as well as a leader. Cummins is selected over Brown by the narrowest of margins, because of his great showing in the Richmond game. Brown likewise played great ball in every game but loses only by the flip of a coin.

Self, of Bedford, and Wright, of Martinsville, have the finesse of two great forwards. Those who saw their work both under the hoop and out on the floor will agree they have a margin over the others although it is slight. Wright averaged four field goals each game while Self was the offensive strength of the Stony City crew.

W. Schnaiter, of Martinsville, gets the call over Kessler of Richmond, the Gimbel prize winner, for floor guard position because he can shoot baskets. Kessler is the better floor worker, but can't hit the hoop. Good of Frankfort, a steady, heady player, was the main cog in the Frankfort machine, but has a very slight margin over Ridge of Connersville. Good can get possession of the ball.

Pogue, of Frankfort, is almost a unanimous choice for back guard. Like Skinner of Bedford he had to stand back under the hoop and watch the eagle-eye sharp shooters of Martinsville hit from the center of the floor and farther out. Under the hoop Martinsville could do little with either of them.

R. Schnaiter, a hard fighter and a good long shot, is placed on the third

Giants Sure Winners

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, March 17—New York ball players are not among those qualified to know who are counting the Giants out of the National league and preparing the Yankees for an upset in the American League.

While it would be unnatural, and painful, too, if McGraw heard about it, for the Giant players to even whisper that some other club might win the pennant, the members of the three-time champions are obviously sincere in maintaining that they are in for no more than a hard fight.

Victory is synonymous with a hard fight with most any team that McGraw bands together, because he makes them fight or gives them the air.

Weak pitching is regarded as the greatest handicap the Giants will have to assume in the 1924 pennant race. Most everyone but the Giant players figure that the club has a terrible pitching staff.

"With Bently, Neff, Ryan, McQuilhan, Watson and Oeschger, we have the foundation for anything but a weak staff, and if we don't get a couple of good youngsters out of twenty that are to be tried out, the average won't work," Hank Gowdy, the veteran catcher, said recently.

Frank Frisch, the star second baseman, maintained all winter that the Giants were not facing trouble. Frisch argues that no other team in the league has been greatly strengthened, the Giants have not been weakened and if the Giants were good enough to win the last three years, they are good for another pennant.

Heinie Groh, who spent the winter in Cincinnati, says that the Reds have a fine pitching staff, but they have a weak infield that will offset the defensive strength of the pitching. He claims the concern Pat Moran feels about his infield was manifested when he offered the Giants $50,000 for Bill Terry, young first baseman, and when great efforts were made to get Dessen, a young third baseman, from the St. Paul American Association club.

The Giant players feel that they will have a stronger team on the offense and defense with Bill Southworth in the outfield and they all seem to be confident that as long as Travis Jackson is around they will not be crippled by the loss of Dave Bancroft, who is to manage the Boston Braves next season.

Babe Ruth, speaking for the Yankees, says they're in now, and that the excitement in the American League will be centered in the battle for second place.

Ruth figures that even if a couple of the veteran pitchers slip, the Yanks will still be able to bat their way to a championship. In reply to arguments that the Yanks were out-batted and outscored last season, he comes back with: "Why did we win the pennant then?"

There is little concern being felt in New York about the Yankees, who are regarded as being in a good safe position, but the Giants are considered to be in a very perilous position.

WORKING HARD FOR GAME

Fairview Steaming Up To Meet Milroy Here Wednesday Night

The Fairview Athletic Club is working hard this week for their game with the Milroy team here Wednesday night at the Modern Appliance building. The Fairview team has made a change in their line-up and will have Essex, Peters, Cook, Seales, Royalty, Darnell, Kendall and Merlee Craig. The latter has joined the club after having played on the Raleigh high school team for several years.

The Fairview team had a practice game last week with the Rushville Romeos, in which the final result was 46 to 12. Peters for Fairview, scored 10 field goals and Rushville lined up with Dagler, Culp, Root, Horkless and Downey.

team. Martinsville, made the great rally in the Frankfort game by an offensive drive more than any great defensive stand by him. Still he has little competition for the place.

In picking the forwards for the second and third team a hard proposition arises. Muey of Richmond and Holz of Frankfort, both have height and accuracy. Both lack the ability to play the floor that would place them on the first team, but excel when fed the ball under the basket.

In watching the performance of Deardorf of North Manchester and Alexander of Wiley, Terre Haute, it was evident that these two offensive powers were the reasons in part that these two teams reached the final tournament. Flannigan, of Connersville, would close with Kessler of Richmond for the honor of being the fastest man on the floor, but his speed might be said to hamper him.

The Best Man Ever.

A man who married a widow says he has reasons to believe the best man that ever lived was his wife's first husband.

If Stomach Is Sour, Food Won't Digest

No stomach filled with sour poisons can digest food. Everything you eat turns into more poison and gas, making you nervous and weak. Simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, expels all sour poisons and gas from BOTH upper and lower bowels. Removes foul, decaying food-matter you never thought was in your system which caused sour and gassy stomach. Adlerika is EXCELLENT to guard against appendicitis. #### For Evening

The tightly collared evening frock is one of the little inconsistencies of which Paris is so fond. But the real charm of this white satin frock is lent by the chiffon scarf, embroidered and fringed with tondre blue.

JACKIE COOGAN'S MOTHER IN ADVICE ABOUT BABY WONDERS

By HAROLD E. SWISHER (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Hollywood, March 17.—The number of film struck maidens and aspiring Valentines who flock into Hollywood from all points of the compass is exceeded only by the startling influx of ambitious mothers with embryo Jackie Coogans or Baby Peggys.

Recently the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce and the Will Hays organization joined in an educational campaign in an attempt to discourage film struck persons, most of whom having no dramatic ability, and to establish once and for all the fact that Hollywood is not a necropolis for mediocrity.

More recently there have appeared in Hollywood, and their numbers are legion, ambitious mothers, with no business experience, small bank rolls and cute children, seeking to entice the elusive goddess of the silver sheet. They come from Gopher Prairie, seeking fame and fortune for their offsprings, chiefly on the advice of doting neighbors, who were just "willing to bet" that if they were in Hollywood their children would make a big hit in the movies.

Mrs. Jack Coogan, mother of the screen's most famous youngster, offers some words of wisdom to mothers of precocious boys and girls.

"In our case," Jackie's mother told the United Press, "we had no idea when we came to Los Angeles that our son would develop as he has. Jackie has been around stage folk all his life. Mr. Coogan and I have both been identified with theatricals since childhood, and when Jackie was very young he exhibited a talent for pantomime. We did not come to Hollywood five years ago with the intention of putting Jackie in pictures. Opportunity presented itself, as it has with others, and Jackie made good.

"Patience and perseverance, fortified with a stout heart and a full pocketbook and some profession to fall back upon in case of need, are a mother's passport to Hollywood.

"If your child shows a tendency towards pantomime, make a screen test. There are cameramen in practically every community. This first step may save you from disillusionment, or may be the means of opening the doors of opportunity for your child. A boy or girl may have unusual dramatic qualifications, but no manner of histrionic ability will register on the camera eye unless one has that undefinable screen personality.

"Don't depend upon friendship for some one in a studio to place your child in pictures—pull and influence does not register on the screen. "Don't let your next door neighbor persuade you with persistent assurances that if your little ones were in Hollywood, he or she would be an instantaneous hit.

"Don't attempt to make your child act—it can't be done. Unless a child is allowed to develop under his own initiative, the case is hopeless.

"The highways of California are lined with roses and palm trees, but the paths that lead to screen achievements are narrow and uninviting. One in a thousand makes good—may be your child is that one. "If you are prepared to bear all that comes before success, then Hollywood invites you. Otherwise it would be better to remain by your fireside."

The next few weeks will see a return of the directors to Hollywood. Marshall Neilson who was loaned to Mary Pickford as director of "Dorothy Vernon," will come back to make more Goldwyn pictures, and King Vidor is almost through his work in "Laurette Taylor's" "Happiness," which he has been directing for Metro.

Pat O'Malley will spend a month in Ireland next summer. Accompanied by Mrs. O'Malley and his two daughters, "Sheila" and "Little Eileen." Pat will visit the home of his parents and take his first rest in years among his countrymen.

Blanche Sweet's "California Top" hairdress is becoming popular among movie fanettes throughout the country. The frizz-top effect which Miss Sweet originated has come into vogue among many of her followers, according to letters she has received.

No Trimming

Bordered silks are very gorgeous this year and are an economical purchase since they require no trimming. This gown is of king blue with borders of black and white. The slight drapery relieves the frock from any possibility of monotony.

The Happy Home Steam Washing Machine

THE GREATEST LABOR SAVER EVER INVENTED FOR WOMEN. NO HOME COMPLETE WITHOUT IT

While it only weighs 25 pounds and only uses 4 gallons of water—think of the saving in carrying and heating water by using The Happy Home. It can be used on any cook stove or hot plate; it will wash more clothes at one time than any single tub washer made for family use, washing from 12 to 17 sheets at one cylinder full. It does away with the WASHBOARD and BOILER and washes anything from the finest lace curtains, feather pillows, blankets, quilts, comforts to the dirtiest rag rugs and overalls.

A Trial in Your Own Home

will convince you that this little washer is even more than we claim for it.

You do not have to stand and turn the crank but as you pass by—doing your other work, turn it slowly for two or three minutes, then go about your work, occasionally during the 20 minutes of steaming, turn as before mentioned. When the clothes have steamed for 20 minutes, lift them out of washer into a tub, of rinsing water as you do not have to wring them until after rinsing.

You Do Not Change The Water

from the time you commence until you have finished your entire washing—merely add enough to each cylinder of clothes to equal 4 gallons, the amount required.

There are several in use in Rushville and vicinity and they are more than pleased with the Happy Home Washer, and say that it will do everything that is claimed for it.

Many Rushville Folks Are Showing How to Avoid Needless Suffering

There's nothing more annoying than kidney weakness or inability to properly control the kidney secretions night and day alike, the sufferer is tormented and wail with the burning and sealding, the attendant backache, headache and dizziness, life is indeed a burden. Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys—have brought peace and comfort to many Rushville people. Profit by this Rushville resident's experience. Mrs. Lizzie Borem, 840 W. Ninth St., says: "My kidneys acted too frequently and I suffered with terrible pains. The doctor said it was gravel. He didn't help me any and I kept passing stones. I got Doan's Pills at Wolcott's Drug Store, and a short use banished the pain."

MORE THAN FIVE YEARS LATER, Mrs. Borem said: "I use Doan's occasionally and they always relieve the trouble."

Fevers and Why

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 57
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

If the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels are not carrying on their work as they should, there is an accumulation within the body of poison and toxic material from day to day.

If you did not clean your house of all the dirt every day and allowed it to accumulate, then the only thing left for you to do would be to start a general house cleaning to make up for that which should have been done daily.

Nature does the same thing. When the poisons have accumulated to a degree that life is endangered, nature brings on an adaptive fever to burn up the poison. This is her way of housecleaning.

There are many different kinds of toxins which might accumulate in the body just as there are different kinds of dirt which will be found in a house. The burning of these different toxins give rise to different symptoms. In other words, the burning of one kind of toxin will give rise to the symptoms of so-called Small Pox, another toxin so called Flu, another so-called measles, etc.

Health turns the Clock Backward

One thing you have always known is that if your elimination is good and you are free from Poisons your resistance against any of the so-called contagious diseases is good.

If you ache, feel tired, drowsy, have a bad color, etc., you can feel sure that your elimination is bad so don't wait until nature has to bring on a fever to clean house for you and cause you to pass through the symptoms of co-called Small Pox, Flu, or any other fever condition.

The methods we use in this office bring back the normal action to the organs of elimination and as the poisons are eliminated your resistance against disease becomes greater.
